Classical Yekaterinburg

Bus excursion to historical sights of Yekaterinburg: Historical Square where in 1723 the main plant in the Urals was constructed, along the oldest hydraulic engineering construction of the city - the dam of the first plant, along the granite embankment of the picturesque city pond. Tourists will see the main square of the city where the monument to Lenin - the leader of the Soviet Russia is set, will visit places, connected with the name of the First Russian President – Boris Yeltsin. The modern megalopolis will also show its elegant merchant mansions of the "gold-rush" times (19 century), modern shopping centers, theatrical quarters and universities. Everyone discovers the capital of the Urals in their own way.

Objects of demonstration:

- The place of emergence of the Yekaterinburg city-plant in 1723 (Dam), with Historical Square alley of huge Ural minerals,

- embankment of the city pond, ancient mansions and Yekaterinburg City, modern business center of the Ural capital: October Square, Reception Palace of the President, Yeltsin center;

- the place of the imperial family death where nowadays there is one of three Russian Churches on Blood and a Patriarchal Metochion;

- unique buildings of Constructionism style,

- well-known theaters- the winners of gold masks and other awards: Opera theater, Theatre of the musical comedy; Kolyada-theater;

- modern monuments and art objects – a monument to the keyboard, lamp shades on streetlights, the highest skyscraper in Asian part of Russia and many other not less surprising things.

Last days of the Russian tsar (Ganina-Yama)

There has been written a lot about the mystical value of the Tsar-martyr Nikolay's murder. Murder of the Russian Orthodox Tsar - the Lord's Anointed caused irreversible changes in the spiritual atmosphere of the whole world.

People from all over the world come to bow to places where the Great monarch and his family spent their last days.

Our route will begin with a short sightseeing tour around the city with a visit of majestic Church on Blood. It is erected on the site of engineer Ipatyev's house in the cellar of which the Imperial family were shot.

Then we will go to the natural boundary "Four Brothers" where to the abandoned mine Ganina-Yama, the remains of the tsar Nicholay II and his family were reset.

The unique Orthodox monastery was built and is still working in this place. In its territory you will see 7 wooden Temples of extraordinary beauty. In twilight all this monastery city as though got lost in the wood, seems fantastic.
